Greetings!

Thank you for your interest in our graduate business programs at the University of Connecticut School of Business. Ranked among the best in the world, UConn's graduate programs offer you a progressive, comprehensive business education to enable you and other future business leaders to anticipate and effectively manage the many challenges encountered in today's rapidly-changing world economy.

Guided by a commitment for global recognition as a provider of exceptional managerial education and business leadership, UConn's graduate programs are carefully designed and developed with active involvement from our alumni and advisors in the business community. Our goal is to ensure that our graduates are fully prepared and competitively positioned for successful careers.

As you research and evaluate your options for advanced study, I encourage you to attend one of our infosessions, or to stop by one of our program offices for a personal visit. After you experience the School of Business and learn more about all we have to offer, I'm confident you'll agree that UConn can provide you with a challenging, highly-differentiated, and affordably-priced business education that will provide the foundation for an exceptional future.

Sincerely,

John A. Elliott, Ph.D.

Dean & Auran J. Fox Chair in Business

Academic Excellence

The UConn Full-time MBA Program is looking for bright, innovative leaders who are motivated by change and challenge, and each year we strive to create a class with a diversity of professional experience, educational achievement, and cultural background. Our pledge is to stimulate your intellect, enhance your skills, and develop your full potential.

Career-centric Curriculum

We offer three quantitative concentrations as well as a General Business track, required courses in shorter modules, front-loaded course work to prepare you for internships in new functions or industries, and an increased focus on strengthening communication skills. Seasoned professionals looking for smaller career changes may be able to complete the program in 16 months.

Global Perspective

UConn's focus on globalization ensures your exposure to inter-national issues and opportunities. Students will be required to pursue a course on Sustainability in the Global Business Environment. UConn's MBA offers everything from a culturally diverse student body, to additional intensive study/travel courses in regions around the world.

Time Off That Pays Off

We are consistently ranked as a Top 50 MBA Program in the country.

Choose Your Path, Change Your Path

Choose between a 16-month MBA, a two-year MBA, and several dual-business degrees.

Delivery and Content That Accelerates

Learn from world-class faculty using coursework and experiential learning to get you in the door and up the ladder.

A Focus on Career Changers

From newly minted MBAs, employers are seeking immediately applicable functional and analytical skills, intelligence, communications ability, professional business acumen, global and cross-functional perspectives, and ability to creatively drive growth and innovation. Our program is specifically designed to address these needs.

Experiential Learning

Unique to UConn's MBA Program curriculum is the incorporation of innovative experiential learning accelerators. These unique practice-based initiatives integrate traditional teaching and classroom instruction with high-profile practical applications to close the gap between theory and practice.

Our accelerators include:

- Experiential Learning Collaborative
- Innovation Accelerator
- Student Managed Fund
- Sustainable Community Outreach and Public Engagement (SCOPE)

Career Placement

The Graduate Career Development Office connects the School of Business with the greater business community's hiring needs. Dedicated MBA career coaches assist students with job search preparation and career development. The office also initiates and facilitates corporate recruiting, develops and maintains employer relationships, and tracks student placement.
